

Jaime Fernández Soriano (percussion)

Jaime Fernández Soriano was born in Valencia in 1982 and in its inception is formed musically at the School of Music Godella and the Municipal Conservatory of Ribaroja Turia. He later graduated in the specialty of percussion by Royal Superior Conservatory of Music in Madrid. In parallel, he extends his studies at the Neopercusión Higher Education Center and is selected for the Graduate Royal Academy of Music in London. As an instrumentalist, he has been part of the National Youth Orchestra of Spain, the School Symphony Orchestra of Madrid and Neopercusión Group. It has also collaborated with the Orchestra of Extremadura, Madrid Symphony Orchestra National Spain, Community of Madrid Orchestra, Atlantic Symphony Orchestra (New Jersey), Cadaqués Orchestra, Orchestra of Euskadi, Plural Ensemble and Sonor Ensemble.

He is currently percussionist of the ORCAM (Community of Madrid Orchestra), the PluralEnsemble Madrid and Flamaer Lux Trio.